

SOCIAL EVENTS

Surprised on Birthday.
A company of 15 friends carried out a delightful surprise party last evening at Miss Friede Ehnman, at her home 410 Seventh street, the occasion being her 20th birthday.

The evening was spent playing games, prizes being awarded to the winners, Miss Marian Anderson, Miss Edna Paulsen, Miss Hilda Stanley and Mrs. L. Moore and consolation favors to Mrs. Harry Schreiner and Miss Hilda Stanley. The company was invited to the dining room where they were served a delicious three course supper, the table centerpiece being a large birthday cake containing lighted candles. The honoree was left with many pretty and useful remembrances of the occasion.

Clear $120 From Coffee.
The delightful coffee held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. A. Russ, 1529 Ninth avenue, by the members of St. Joseph's Altar society netted the sum of $120. During the hours between 2 and 9 o'clock some 300 guests called and were served. This was the most successful of the series of splendid affairs given by the society.

The Russ home was prettily decorated in Russel roses and chrysanthemums and during the afternoon Mrs. Faye Hough McClary gave an unusually charming program of readings in her usual gracious manner. The guests were received by Mrs. Russ and Mrs. J. T. Shields poured in the dining room. A committee composed of Mesdames D. V. Coleman, Walter Yerrbury, J. F. Barnett, Charles Tonn, Louis Funk and Mary Mulhern had charge of the refreshments and these members were assisted by Mesdames C. C. Condon, J. M. Welch, John Hopkins, A. Reinert and William Griffin. Mrs. T. G. Haire had charge of the aprons and fancy work booth and Mrs. John Kimbel of the candy table.

The next coffee will be held some time after the first of the year at the home of Mrs. Thomas Haage, 1005 Twentieth street.

Entertainers for Sister-in-Law.
Mrs. Walter Lewis of 1839 Twenty-second avenue, Moline, entertained at a delightful afternoon party yesterday as a courtesy for her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Verich of Chicago, who is visiting her.

In a guessing contest Mrs. Woods of this city took the prize and 500 was played during the hours. Mrs. Fayette Skinner of this city entertained with vocal and instrumental music. Late in the afternoon a most delicious dinner was served by the hostess in the dining room.

Elect Officers for Year.
Mrs. C. G. Williams was elected president of the Covenant Bible class of the First Methodist church at the meeting held last evening at the home of Mrs. I. O. Schultze, 1233 Fourteenth-and-a-half street. This was the annual meeting and the reports for the year were given. There were 60 members present at last night's meeting. Following are the other officers for the year:

Vice President—Mrs. Lynn Ewing.
Secretary—Mrs. L. L. Hance.
Treasurer—Mrs. W. R. McKee.
Refreshments were served after the business session and a social hour was enjoyed.

Loyal Berean Class.
The Loyal Berean class of the Second Christian church was entertained last night at the home of Mrs. M. J. Hamerly, 1423 Sixth street. There were 24 members present and at the regular business session it was decided to change the meeting night from the second Thursday of each month to the second Friday. The class decided to pay off the assessments for the sidewalks around the church property. A social hour was enjoyed when refreshments were served by the hostess. Victrola music was given during the evening. Mrs. Bertha Hawley will entertain the class at the regular meeting next month.

Mrs. Greim Hostess to Club.
Mrs. George L. Greim of 308 Fifth avenue was hostess Thursday to the members of the A. B. club at a 12 o'clock luncheon. After the delicious course meal the guests spent the afternoon with their needle work and enjoying victrola music. At 4 o'clock tea was served. Mrs. Parker Gale of 2127 Ninth street will entertain the club next Friday.

Enthusiastic Recital This Evening.
One of the series of faculty recitals is to be given this evening at 8:15 at the Augustana college chapel, when two of the new members of the conservatory faculty, Miss Georgia Nettles, soprano, and Arthur Peterson, cellist, with Le Roy Carlson at the piano, will present the following program:

Vissi D'Arte, Vissi D'Amore, "Tosca"—Puccini.
"Hear Ye, Israel," Elijah—Mendelssohn.
"Thais"—Massenet.
"Swan Song"—Saint-Saens.
"Harlequin"—Popper.
"The Unforeseen"—Cyril Scott.
"Twilight"—Katherine A. Glen.
"Chanson provencale"—Dill Aquia.
"Serenade"—Schubert.
"Dost Thou Know Sweet Land"—Thomas.
(Cello obligatos).

"The Danza"—Chadwick.
"Come Down to Kew"—Carl Dela.
"A Burst of Melody"—C. Linn Selter.
The third of the artists' concert series at the college will be given by Isolda Menger, the English violinist. Friday evening, Nov. 21, and Handel's "Messiah" will be given by the Handel Oratorio society Friday evening, Dec. 12.

Entertainers for Bride-Elect.
One of a number of pretty pre-nuptial affairs to be given for Miss Beanie Logan of Davenport who is to become the bride of Richard Fletcher of New York, was that given last evening at the home of Miss Bath Weber of this city and Miss Irma Sanderson, at the Weber home.

217 Forty-fifth street. The affair was a 6 o'clock dinner party, the pink and white color scheme being effectively carried out in the table decorations. The evening hours were spent in informal sociability.

Mr. and Mrs. Krueger Are Surprised.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Krueger were very much surprised last evening when a company of 15 friends and relatives called on them at the home, 2800 Seventh avenue, and remained for a pleasant evening. Hearts was the main diversion, and at 10 o'clock a dainty supper which had been brought and prepared by the guests was served.

Pre-Nuptial for Miss Bennett.
Miss Majorie Ingram of 1821 Sixteenth street, entertained Wednesday evening at a pretty party in courtesy for Miss Nolla Bennett of Davenport, who is to be a bride of Nov. 24, in Searcy, Ark. The guests were a group of friends of the bride-to-be.

Yellow and white, the colors chosen by the bride, were carried out in the room decorations. Games were played during the evening. Prizes were awarded to Miss Bennett and Miss Hilley. A delicious supper was served at the close of the evening in the dining room which was softly lighted by the candles on the table which were placed at each place. A large wedding cake was prettily decorated in the colors. After the meal Miss Bennett was given a yellow streamer to follow at the end of which she found her gift, a Beacon blanket.

Amoo Grotto Dance.
Over a hundred couples attended the dancing party sponsored Wednesday night at the Masonic temple by Amoo Grotto. White's orchestra furnished the dance program and refreshments were served. The committee in charge of the affair was chairmaned by Arthur Vogel, and included H. O. Hattrem, Horace Mason, Frank Patterson, Arthur Schuck and N. B. Gostline.

The next dance will be given Dec. 10, and the Grotto will again hold its annual dinner-dance on New Year's eve. This year the number of tickets to be sold will be limited so that those who get theirs first will be sure of being able to attend the affair which is always one of the prettiest New Years eve dances in the tri-cities.

Flag Coffee Tomorrow.
One of the series of flag coffees is being given by Barbara Friehtich tonight this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bernice Yoh, 420 Fourth avenue. The hostess will be assisted in serving by Mrs. Beale Barth Richardson, Mrs. Mary Barth, Mrs. Essie Steimon, Mrs. Ella Fisher, Mrs. Iowa Nickels and Mrs. Mabel Hollow-peter.

To Have Card Party.
The drill team of the Lady Eagles will sponsor a card party this evening at the hall to which members and friends are invited. Five Hundred is to be played and the games will start promptly at 8:15. This is one of the series of parties to be sponsored by the team.

Association to Have Visitor.
Mrs. Harry B. Runyan of St. Paul is to be a special guest at the Y. W. C. A. next week and she will be the speaker at many of the regular meetings and there will be special meetings held which she will address. Mrs. Runyan was at one time dean of women at Denison college in Ohio and she is at present an inter-denominational bible class worker and is visiting various associations, giving talks, mostly on bible work.

Sunday morning at 9:30 Mrs. Runyan will speak to the women and girls of the Broadway Presbyterian church and at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon all members and friends of the association will have the opportunity to hear her when she will be the speaker at the vesper tea at the association. Monday evening she is to speak at the building and Tuesday evening she will address the newly formed Y. W. C. A. leaders' training class on "The Girl in Her Teens."

Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock Mrs. Runyan will speak to the council girls and Friday she will be one of the speakers at the first birthday party to be held at the association under the new plan of celebrating the birthdays of the members each month. Saturday afternoon at 2:30 she will speak to the girl reserves.

Miss Mary Babcock of New York city, who was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday in the interest of world's fellowship week, spoke to the members of the Y. W. C. A. leaders' class Wednesday night. Miss Babcock was for 10 years general secretary of a New York city Y. W. C. A. She is at present a member of the faculty of the W. W. White bible school and has been granted a two years' leave of absence to visit Y. W. C. A.'s in this country in the interest of bible school work.

The goal of the newly formed leaders' organization is to have trained workers in the associations of the country for the girls' work. There will be a series of eight lessons and the meetings locally are to be held each Tuesday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock.

Twenty-two girl reserves of the association went to Davenport Wednesday afternoon chaperoned by Miss Sarah Schmidt of the association when they were treated at Macchi's canteen by J. E. Eiten. In the evening members of the Oak Grove girl reserves were the guests of Mr. Eiten.

The first meeting of the winter of the girls' H-Y club was held Wednesday afternoon. Miss Sarah Totten gave a vocal selection and several girls dressed in the costumes of foreign countries where association work is being carried on and where association war work was done, gave short talks on the countries they represented. Miss Mary Babcock spoke to the girls of the club.

Club Auxiliary Has Meeting.
Yesterday afternoon the members of the ladies' auxiliary to the Community club held a meeting at the club rooms when after a short business meeting Mr. Greenman, the new worker in this community, gave a talk. The auxiliary decided to serve refreshments at the next open house which the men of the club are to hold next Thursday evening.

After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed when Mrs. Lena Speckhart and Mrs. Nettie Ralston, the hostesses for yesterday afternoon, invited the company to the dining room, where refreshments were served.

Finish Work for Bazar.
Mrs. Frances Hawes was yesterday hostess to the members of the F. C. B. club when they finished work for the bazar which is to be held next Wednesday afternoon and evening at Odd Fellows hall. There will be fancy aprons and plain aprons, fancy caps, towels, pillow cases, both plain and fancy, dollies with crocheted lace, and five quilts and two comforters for sale. Blue's orchestra has been secured for the evening and will play for the dancing which will be a feature of the affair. Refreshments are to be served. At the meeting yesterday a picnic dinner was served at noon.

Julius Falk Recital Tonight.
Julius Falk's violin recital this evening is looked forward to with great anticipation by those interested in musical treats, but the added interest centers in Estelle Wentworth, dramatic reader. These two appear this evening in one of the foremost musical events of the tri-cities.

Miss Wentworth has a voice full of charm and richness. When she returned to America at the outbreak of the war she had unquestionably established a reputation throughout Europe as an opera and concert singer of exceptional merit. Mr. Falk played in numerous camps during the war, where he won the admiration of the many soldiers and sailors before whom he played.

Held Memorial Service.
A beautiful memorial ceremony was held Wednesday night by members of Rock Island chapter 269, O. E. S., for the members of the order who have died during the past year. The service was held following the regular meeting at the Masonic temple.

Mrs. Cora Schilling was in charge of the service and she was assisted by Mesdames Margaret Sudlow, Pearl Schultz, Ganes Hirst, Elizabeth Butt, Pearl Snyder, Letta Record, Norma Kimmel and 30 young ladies who were dressed in white and carried pretty green garlands. Music was furnished by Mrs. Edith Ullemeyer, Mrs. Harriet Lee, Mrs. Louise Reiss and Miss Jean Greer. As the name of each of the departed members was read by the secretary, Mrs. Mary F. Kroll, Mrs. Pearl Snyder placed a flower on the altar and later she placed a bouquet of white carnations on the altar in memory of the soldiers who lost their lives during the past year. The flowers which were used in the service were afterwards placed on the graves of the departed members.

At the business meeting Mrs. Mary E. Krull the worthy matron, and Mrs. Jessie Linter, the associate matron, gave reports of the grand chapter meeting held in Chicago in October. A committee consisting of Mesdames Cora Schilling, Anna Lamp and Edith Ullemeyer and the Misses Marie Bruner and Anna Boslock was appointed to arrange for a Christmas party for the children of the members.

Story Lady Who Speaks to Club.
Miss Georgene Faulkner of Chicago, "The Story Lady," is to be the speaker tomorrow afternoon at the November meeting of the Rock Island Woman's club at the Masonic temple. Miss Faulkner, who gained her reputation as a story teller when she used to tell stories to the youngsters "behind the yards," in the famous slum district in Chicago, has just recently returned from France. She was with the Y. M. C. A., serving as an entertainer, telling stories to the homesick troops who were obliged to wait until the last to come home. She was with a unit called "The Friendly Folk." Miss Faulkner is proud of her title of "Auntie of the A. E. F."

Miss Faulkner was originally a kindergarten teacher. The library committee of the Chicago Woman's club sent her to Davis square, a public park situated behind the stock yards, where she told stories in the large auditorium. Later she went to Brooklyn, where some playground work was being started, and she was immediately received with open arms by the children. She is said to be the first woman to go on the chautauqua platform in the capacity of a story teller.

Besides the address by Miss Faulkner, Rev. Rollo L. Rilling, pastor of the Mt. Ida Presbyterian church of Davenport, is to sing two numbers, "Seek Ye First the Kingdom of God," by William Ames Fisher, and "Homing," by Teresa Delriege.

Have Card Party.
Members of the Plattdeutschen-Schwesteren sponsored a card party yesterday afternoon at Math's hall which was well attended. The games started at 2:30 and Mrs. Richard Iverson of Moline took first prize and Mrs. Peter Langbehn of Moline the second prize. Miss Sue O'Connor of this city took the all-cut favor. Another party will be given in the near future. The next regular meeting will be held Dec. 13.

Reorganize Missionary Union.
Yesterday afternoon the city Women's Missionary union was reorganized after three years of inactivity, at a meeting held at the Central Presbyterian church, when Mrs. William Paulsen was elected president. This union was an active organization several years ago, but during the war the meetings were discontinued. Meetings are held at the various churches at various intervals and the union at one time sponsored a course of religious lectures in the city.

Following are the officers chosen yesterday to head the organization:
First vice president—Mrs. A. J. Bullock.
Second vice president—Mrs. Alex Quist.
Third vice president—Mrs. E. J. Zeigler.
Fourth vice president—Miss Rosabelle Stewart.
Fifth vice president—Mrs. F. A. Graves.
Secretary—Mrs. R. L. Baird.
Treasurer—Miss Mildred Warnock.

Mrs. E. E. Barr gave piano numbers and Mrs. J. T. Morley and Mrs. Simmons sang a duet. Miss Mary E. Adkins, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., gave a splendid talk on "World Fellowship," which has been the feature of the Y. W. C. A. work all over the country during the last week. The next meeting of the union will be held in May at the South Park Presbyterian church.

Council Girls' Supper.
Forty council girls met at a supper meeting last evening at the Y. W. C. A., when ladies of the Broadway Presbyterian church served the meal. Miss Beas Sangren, the president of the council conducted the meeting, and plans were made for the work of the next month. After the business session, Mrs. C. W. Hawes, who has charge of the bible study hour, gave a short talk and the girls attended the bible study class conducted by Rev. J. Clark Oranger. Rev. Mr. Oranger gave a short review of the new testament which is to be the study for the next few weeks.

Entertainers Happy Circle.
Mrs. C. D. Wells of 1213 Fourteenth street, was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Happy Circle club members. Plans were discussed for a Christmas party which is to be held in December at the home of Mrs. Fred Boyd, 2145 Gaines street, Davenport, the exact date to be set later.

The members spent the afternoon crocheting and at 5 o'clock they were asked to the dining room where the hostess served a delicious dinner, covers being laid for 15. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were used on the table. Mrs. James Grover of Mt. Sterling, a guest of Mrs. Charles Grover of Davenport, one of the club members was an out-of-town guest. The next meeting will be held in three weeks instead of two weeks from yesterday, on Dec. 4, at the home of Mrs. Louis Sperling, 1508 Forty-second street.

Request Members Attend Services.
As a culmination to the week of special rally meetings at the Gloria Dei United Presbyterian church, there will be consecration services this evening at 7:30, when Rev. J. Campbell White of Moline, will preach.

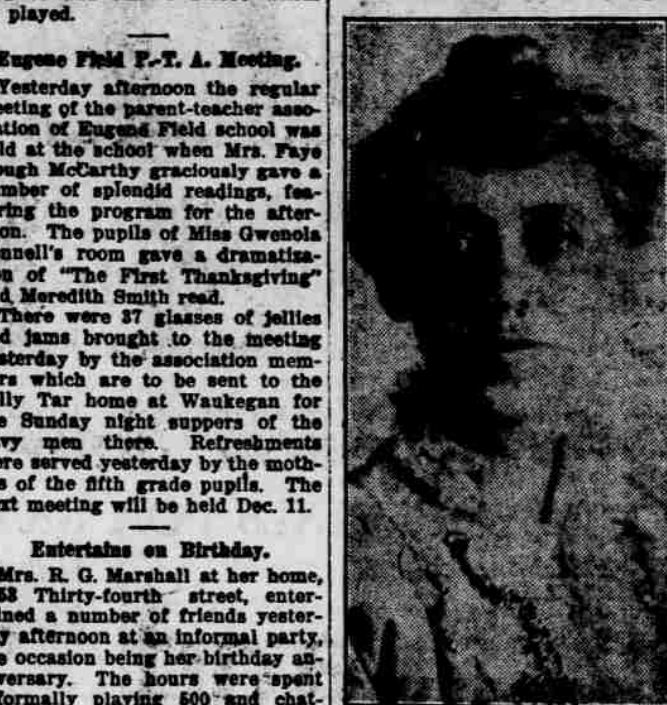

Members of the church and adherents who signed cards at the Billy Sunday meetings are especially asked to attend. Tomorrow afternoon the juniors will hold a special meeting at the church at 2 o'clock and Sunday there will be special homecoming services, when the sacrament of baptism will be administered and there will be communion services in the evening. New members will be taken into the church at both the morning and evening services, and the pastor will meet those desiring to unite with the church at 10:45 and at 7 o'clock. The morning sermon theme will be, "How to Live a Christian Life."

Strike Was Not Contemplated by High Students.
Reports that the students of the Rock Island high school were contemplating a strike today were made without foundation. Those who participated in the disturbance on Tuesday returned to their studies a few hours afterwards, admitting that they were at fault. Mr. Lau, principle, brands the reports as a deliberate attempt to discredit the local school.

I. & R. Carried In State by Chicago.
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 14.—Returns from Cook county on the public policy questions voted on at the election Nov. 4, last, announced by the secretary of state, today show majorities of from 70,000 to 78,000 in favor of the propositions, insuring $40,000 in spite of the adverse vote in most downtown counties. Official grand totals were not yet available.

A western Illinois paper for western Illinois people—The Argus.

RELIEF WORKER IN THE BALKANS

Mrs. L. M. Amerg.

Mrs. L. M. Amerg is the wife of Captain Amerg, assistant secretary of war in the British cabinet who served on the staff of the British army in Salonika. Mrs. Amerg has taken her husband's place in the Balkans, but her work is not military. She is serving on the British committee for relief in the near east.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich or poor, is carefully taught how to address his parents, his superiors, his fellows and his inferiors with fitting courtesy. Even among the poorest classes a considerable portion of each day is devoted by the child to the study of etiquette.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich or poor, is carefully taught how to address his parents, his superiors, his fellows and his inferiors with fitting courtesy. Even among the poorest classes a considerable portion of each day is devoted by the child to the study of etiquette.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich or poor, is carefully taught how to address his parents, his superiors, his fellows and his inferiors with fitting courtesy. Even among the poorest classes a considerable portion of each day is devoted by the child to the study of etiquette.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich or poor, is carefully taught how to address his parents, his superiors, his fellows and his inferiors with fitting courtesy. Even among the poorest classes a considerable portion of each day is devoted by the child to the study of etiquette.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich or poor, is carefully taught how to address his parents, his superiors, his fellows and his inferiors with fitting courtesy. Even among the poorest classes a considerable portion of each day is devoted by the child to the study of etiquette.

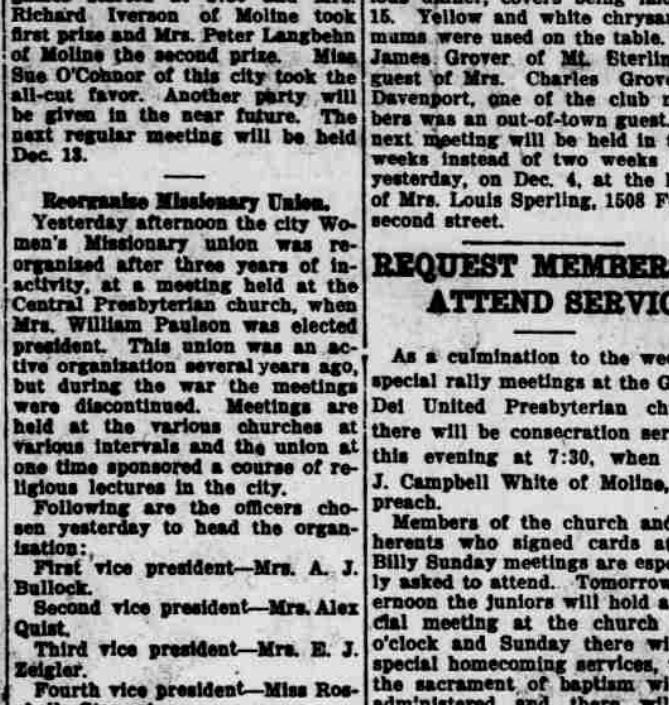

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich or poor, is carefully taught how to address his parents, his superiors, his fellows and his inferiors with fitting courtesy. Even among the poorest classes a considerable portion of each day is devoted by the child to the study of etiquette.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

STORY LADY WHO SPEAKS TO CLUB

Miss Georgene Faulkner.

Miss Georgene Faulkner of Chicago, "The Story Lady," is to be the speaker tomorrow afternoon at the November meeting of the Rock Island Woman's club at the Masonic temple. Miss Faulkner, who gained her reputation as a story teller when she used to tell stories to the youngsters "behind the yards," in the famous slum district in Chicago, has just recently returned from France. She was with the Y. M. C. A., serving as an entertainer, telling stories to the homesick troops who were obliged to wait until the last to come home. She was with a unit called "The Friendly Folk." Miss Faulkner is proud of her title of "Auntie of the A. E. F."

Miss Faulkner was originally a kindergarten teacher. The library committee of the Chicago Woman's club sent her to Davis square, a public park situated behind the stock yards, where she told stories in the large auditorium. Later she went to Brooklyn, where some playground work was being started, and she was immediately received with open arms by the children. She is said to be the first woman to go on the chautauqua platform in the capacity of a story teller.

Besides the address by Miss Faulkner, Rev. Rollo L. Rilling, pastor of the Mt. Ida Presbyterian church of Davenport, is to sing two numbers, "Seek Ye First the Kingdom of God," by William Ames Fisher, and "Homing," by Teresa Delriege.

Have Card Party.
Members of the Plattdeutschen-Schwesteren sponsored a card party yesterday afternoon at Math's hall which was well attended. The games started at 2:30 and Mrs. Richard Iverson of Moline took first prize and Mrs. Peter Langbehn of Moline the second prize. Miss Sue O'Connor of this city took the all-cut favor. Another party will be given in the near future. The next regular meeting will be held Dec. 13.

Reorganize Missionary Union.
Yesterday afternoon the city Women's Missionary union was reorganized after three years of inactivity, at a meeting held at the Central Presbyterian church, when Mrs. William Paulsen was elected president. This union was an active organization several years ago, but during the war the meetings were discontinued. Meetings are held at the various churches at various intervals and the union at one time sponsored a course of religious lectures in the city.

Following are the officers chosen yesterday to head the organization:
First vice president—Mrs. A. J. Bullock.
Second vice president—Mrs. Alex Quist.
Third vice president—Mrs. E. J. Zeigler.
Fourth vice president—Miss Rosabelle Stewart.
Fifth vice president—Mrs. F. A. Graves.
Secretary—Mrs. R. L. Baird.
Treasurer—Miss Mildred Warnock.

Mrs. E. E. Barr gave piano numbers and Mrs. J. T. Morley and Mrs. Simmons sang a duet. Miss Mary E. Adkins, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., gave a splendid talk on "World Fellowship," which has been the feature of the Y. W. C. A. work all over the country during the last week. The next meeting of the union will be held in May at the South Park Presbyterian church.

Council Girls' Supper.
Forty council girls met at a supper meeting last evening at the Y. W. C. A., when ladies of the Broadway Presbyterian church served the meal. Miss Beas Sangren, the president of the council conducted the meeting, and plans were made for the work of the next month. After the business session, Mrs. C. W. Hawes, who has charge of the bible study hour, gave a short talk and the girls attended the bible study class conducted by Rev. J. Clark Oranger. Rev. Mr. Oranger gave a short review of the new testament which is to be the study for the next few weeks.

Entertainers Happy Circle.
Mrs. C. D. Wells of 1213 Fourteenth street, was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Happy Circle club members. Plans were discussed for a Christmas party which is to be held in December at the home of Mrs. Fred Boyd, 2145 Gaines street, Davenport, the exact date to be set later.

The members spent the afternoon crocheting and at 5 o'clock they were asked to the dining room where the hostess served a delicious dinner, covers being laid for 15. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were used on the table. Mrs. James Grover of Mt. Sterling, a guest of Mrs. Charles Grover of Davenport, one of the club members was an out-of-town guest. The next meeting will be held in three weeks instead of two weeks from yesterday, on Dec. 4, at the home of Mrs. Louis Sperling, 1508 Forty-second street.

Request Members Attend Services.
As a culmination to the week of special rally meetings at the Gloria Dei United Presbyterian church, there will be consecration services this evening at 7:30, when Rev. J. Campbell White of Moline, will preach.

Members of the church and adherents who signed cards at the Billy Sunday meetings are especially asked to attend. Tomorrow afternoon the juniors will hold a special meeting at the church at 2 o'clock and Sunday there will be special homecoming services, when the sacrament of baptism will be administered and there will be communion services in the evening. New members will be taken into the church at both the morning and evening services, and the pastor will meet those desiring to unite with the church at 10:45 and at 7 o'clock. The morning sermon theme will be, "How to Live a Christian Life."

Strike Was Not Contemplated by High Students.
Reports that the students of the Rock Island high school were contemplating a strike today were made without foundation. Those who participated in the disturbance on Tuesday returned to their studies a few hours afterwards, admitting that they were at fault. Mr. Lau, principle, brands the reports as a deliberate attempt to discredit the local school.

I. & R. Carried In State by Chicago.
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 14.—Returns from Cook county on the public policy questions voted on at the election Nov. 4, last, announced by the secretary of state, today show majorities of from 70,000 to 78,000 in favor of the propositions, insuring $40,000 in spite of the adverse vote in most downtown counties. Official grand totals were not yet available.

A western Illinois paper for western Illinois people—The Argus.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich or poor, is carefully taught how to address his parents, his superiors, his fellows and his inferiors with fitting courtesy. Even among the poorest classes a considerable portion of each day is devoted by the child to the study of etiquette.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

RELIEF WORKER IN THE BALKANS

Mrs. L. M. Amerg.

Mrs. L. M. Amerg is the wife of Captain Amerg, assistant secretary of war in the British cabinet who served on the staff of the British army in Salonika. Mrs. Amerg has taken her husband's place in the Balkans, but her work is not military. She is serving on the British committee for relief in the near east.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich or poor, is carefully taught how to address his parents, his superiors, his fellows and his inferiors with fitting courtesy. Even among the poorest classes a considerable portion of each day is devoted by the child to the study of etiquette.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich or poor, is carefully taught how to address his parents, his superiors, his fellows and his inferiors with fitting courtesy. Even among the poorest classes a considerable portion of each day is devoted by the child to the study of etiquette.

Des Moines Paper Wins Libel Suit.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 14.—A verdict for Gardner Cowles, publisher of the Des Moines Register and Tribune, in the libel suit against him filed by Judge B. I. Salinger of the Iowa supreme court, was returned today in the district court of Judge Lawrence DeGraff.

Judge Salinger asked $10,000, alleging an editorial in the Register a 1916 was libelous.

Every Chinese child, rich